THE WILMINGTON HOUSING AUTHORITY'S QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

WILMINGTON HOUSING AUTHORITY AT A GLANCE

Welcome to the Wilmington Housing Authority's (WHA) Quarterly Newsletter.

The WHA is the largest direct provider of affordable housing opportunities in the State of Delaware. We are committed to developing, providing, and managing safe and affordable housing for low-income families in the City of Wilmington.

During the third quarter, the Wilmington Housing Authority YouthBuild Program continued to support participants in achieving their professional goals. Youth in the program completed their work readiness training and GED studies. While in the program, the youth also participated in team building exercises and identified their career goals and aspirations.

The Division of Services for Aging and Adults with Physical Disabilities (DSAAPD) continued providing workshops and on-site support to WHA residents. DSAAPD will continue to host workshops once a month at five WHA locations.

Please keep reading for more updates, stories, and resources from the Wilmington Housing Authority.

WHA RESIDENTS SUCCESSFULLY ACHIEVE GOALS

Angel Moody and Jessica Wise, WHA Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency (ROSS) Program participants, have graduated and are now in search of their first homes to purchase. The Wilmington Housing Authority congratulates both residents for achieving their goals and objectives during the third quarter.

WHA Resident Services staff are very proud of the graduates' determination and persistence to reach their goals by following the method of the Family Self-Sufficiency program. WHA is proud of each of the residents and excited to continue supporting them in their path to homeownership.

RESIDENTS INCREASE CREDIT SCORES

During the third quarter of 2023, residents Linette Marshall, Tracey Smalls, Sharmin Miller, Lareeda Seeney, Theresa Stevenson, K. Warren, and M. Usher increased their credit scores. One resident started with no credit and increased their credit by obtaining a secured card. They are excited to attain this goal, bringing them closer to homeownership. Wilmington Housing Authority is proud of them accomplishing this short-term goal.

Resident Services offers a Credit Repair Workshop. The goal of the workshop is to help participants increase their credit scores by at least 20 points. Call the EnVision Center One-Stop-Shop at (302) 761-9460 to register for the next Credit Repair Workshop.

WHA RESIDENT SERVICES NETWORKING

Nakia Wallace, WHA Service Coordinator of Resident Services, attended the Jump Start Wilmington Developer Network Event hosted at Wilmington's Riverfront on Thursday, September 21, 2023. The event provided WHA Resident Services access to Housing Developers as well as community resources for housing and other barriers faced by WHA residents. In addition to over 25 Delaware housing developers, organizations in attendance included TD Bank, Delaware State Housing Authority, Wilmington Neighborhood Conservatory Land Bank and Delaware Black Chamber of Commerce. Nakia Wallace stated she is ecstatic about this initiative to increase small scale projects that will improve the quality of life for Wilmington neighborhoods, and she wants to be a part of that change.

NEW BENEFITS FOR DELAWARE HEALTH CHILDREN PROGRAM

As of July 1, 2023, children enrolled in Delaware Healthy Children Program (DHCP) will have access to new free services introduced by Delaware Medicaid. Those new services are as follows:

Prescribed Pediatric Extended Care (PPEC)

Alternative to institutionalization or community/home care for children with medically complex or special healthcare needs.

Non-Emergency Medical Transportation

Free rides to medical and dental appointments when no other transportation is available.

For more information, talk to your child's doctor about PPEC. To schedule a ride for medical transport with ModivCare call 1-866-412-3778 or through ModivCare accounts at www.modivcare.com.

MEDICAID & CHIP COVERAGE

As of April 1, 2023, annual Medicaid and Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) eligibility reviews began. Information on file will be used to decide if family members still qualify for Medicaid or CHIP coverage. Most children can still be covered through CHIP.

If more information is needed to make a coverage decision, a renewal letter will be mailed, so it's important for anyone who has moved, contact information should be updated.

There are 3 easy steps families can take to prepare for the renewal process:

1. Update contact information
2. Check mail
3. Complete renewal form (if they get one)

Report any name changes or contact updates (email/mail address, phone numbers) by calling the Change Report Center (302) 571-4900, Option 2, by fax (302) 571-4901, or through your Delaware ASSIST Account.

POSTPARTUM MEDICAID EXTENDED

Those enrolled in Medicaid will be eligible to receive 12 months of ongoing postpartum health care coverage beginning on the date their pregnancy ends, regardless of the reason, through 12 months after the last date of the pregnancy. They will remain eligible for ongoing postpartum health care coverage even if certain changes occur that may affect eligibility.

For more information on Medicaid in Delaware visit <https://www.dhss.delaware.gov/dss/medicaid.html>.

CO-PAYMENTS REINSTATED

Delaware Medicaid copayments for Adult Dental services for most members over the age of 21 years, Pharmacy Prescriptions and the Delaware Prescription Assistance Program (DPAP) will start December 1, 2023.

DPAP participants can call the DPAP Member Call Center 1-844-245-9580 Monday-Friday, 8:00 AM to 4:30PM. Visit de.gov/medicaidrenewals for more information.
